Scenic artists are sometimes asked to produce a high quality faux finish marble, often with little time and few tools. But those restraints are not necessarily drawbacks; they can often help with being too deliberate or “overthinking”. This class will cover various techniques on hard panels involving painted marble and trompe l’oeil moldings and ornaments. This is the 2nd of 3 Faux finish seminars, the third being Stone, Brick, and Metal (to be offered in the Spring Semester).

Cost of the Marble course is $475 which includes all materials.

A Discount of $50 will apply if you take 2 seminars, or $900 for two.

Jane Snow is the Managing Director of the Studio and Forum and an 829 Scenic Artist.
